

Scam Email Alert

Suppliers:

There is a scam email being sent to suppliers from a party pretending to be UCF Procurement Services requesting quotes on behalf of the university. If you receive an email to this effect or any message from an email address other than our official address (procurement@ucf.edu) or one of our staff members with a ucf.edu email address, please disregard the email and notify us at procurement@ucf.edu that you received a scam email.

Thank you for your cooperation!
